When Oswald was arrested in August 1963, the handbill that was confiscated by the police did not have the 544 Camp Street address: <https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=10490#relPageId=602>

The Historic New Orleans Collections does have a flyer: https://www.hnoc.org/sites/default/files/quarterly/Quarterly_1986_15_Spring.pdf

New Orleans Historical, a web platform that shares stories about New Orleans, did have a story on its website about the Newman building which relied on the fake flyer:

<https://neworleanshistorical.org/items/show/1470> (the article no longer exists), you can still see the article here:

<https://web.archive.org/web/20210301122934/https://neworleanshistorical.org/items/show/1470>

John Newman suggested an explanation for the absence of handbills with the 544 Camp Street address from the official record in JFK: Destiny Betrayed: (12:28 in episode 4); JFK Revisited, op. cit., page 228 in the Kindle edition.

Here is one page from that document: Courtesy of the Malcolm Blunt Archive - <https://drive.google.com/file/d/1ug6Xa5ZHWXJgmEMsyiKATc2c-h6We8h5/view>

44. Did Guy Banister Give Oswald an Office at 544 Camp Street? (Episode 4, 10:55)

The HSCA noted Roberts' testimony and wrote:

Jack Martin was a crackpot who had no credibility: <https://www.onthetrailofdelusion.com/post/did-david-ferrie-introduce-jack-martin-to-lee-harvey-oswald-in-banister-s-office>; other examples:

- Jack Martin told the HSCA that Jim Garrison was framed by John Dean, of Watergate fame: <https://www.onthetrailofdelusion.com/post/did-john-dean-frame-jim-garrison>;

Jack Martin did not convince the HSCA:

The HSCA also agreed: <https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=1212#relPageId=135>

45. Was Clay Shaw a "Contract Agent" for the CIA? (Episode 4, 13:22)

Quote from Joan Mellen: A Farewell to Justice: Jim Garrison, JFK's Assassination, and the Case That Should Have Changed History, (Skyhorse, 2013), page 388; https://www.amazon.com/Farewell-Justice-Garrison-Assassination-Changed/dp/1597970484/ref=sr_1_1?crid=2HIN95YW7Y6H2

Here is an excerpt of that document:
<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=7302#relPageId=3>

1955 document that refers to Shaw as a 'valued source':
<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=67724#relPageId=2>

This 1955 document is indeed in the segregated collection:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/php/showlist.php?docset=1093>

Elena Garro de Paz claimed to have seen Oswald:

On the night before the assassination:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=946#relPageId=764>

Oswald was only in Mexico City from September 26, 1963 to October 3, 1963:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=946#relPageId=323>

Max Holland spoke with McDonald who told him: <https://jfkfacts.org/how-does-new-orleans-figure-in-the-jfk-story/>

A document dated 16 October 1967 flatly stated that Shaw was never remunerated for his services:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=55187#relPageId=9>

A CIA document on Clay Shaw had this mysterious paragraph:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=42764#relPageId=5>

A staffer from the HSCA also made notes:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=31932#relPageId=3>

What was Project QKENCHANT:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=162783#relPageId=8>

Here is a better description in plain English:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=162783#relPageId=10>

There is no evidence that Clay Shaw had clearance under this program:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=162783#relPageId=8>

Here is a CIA document that offers an explanation:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=101726#relPageId=2>

Clay Shaw wrote about the CIA: "Two Reasons why Clay Shaw Never Admitted to being a Domestic Contact of the CIA"; <https://www.onthetrailofdelusion.com/post/two-reasons-why-clay-shaw-never-admitted-to-being-a-domestic-contact-of-the-cia>

46. Was Clay Shaw the Elusive Clay Bertrand? (Episode 4, 14:03)

Here is what Harold Weisberg wrote in his unpublished book:

<http://jfk.hood.edu/Collection/Weisberg%20Subject%20Index%20Files/HW%20Manuscripts/MAILER05.DOC>

Joan Mellen wrote Weisberg a letter and his reply: Letters from May and June 2001;

<http://jfk.hood.edu/Collection/Weisberg%20Subject%20Index%20Files/M%20Disk/Mellen%20Joan/Item%2010.pdf>

The sources section contains links to posts that debunk all of these witnesses:

- Perry Russo: Perry Russo was administered sodium Pentothal, hypnotized three times, and then had a recovered memory that Clay Shaw was Clem Bertrand. However, he said nothing of the sort in his initial interviews in Baton Rouge. See “Perry Russo Talks – in Baton Rouge, Part One”; <https://www.onthetrailofdelusion.com/post/perry-russo-talks-in-baton-rouge-part-one>; Part two: <https://www.onthetrailofdelusion.com/post/perry-russo-talks-in-baton-rouge-part-two>; Part Three: <https://www.onthetrailofdelusion.com/post/perry-russo-talks-in-baton-rouge-part-three>

- There are two other witnesses mentioned in Joan Mellen's book, And Justice For All, Rickey Planche and Barbara Bennett. But neither of these witnesses came forward during Garrison's investigation and there are no formal statements from either of them.

More importantly, Garrison couldn't find Clay Bertrand back in 1967: "Was Jim Garrison Searching for Clay Bertrand in 1963?"; <https://www.onthetrailofdelusion.com/post/was-jim-garrison-searching-for-clay-bertrand-in-1963>

Of course, the FBI and the Secret Service put in a lot of work in late 1963 trying to find Clay Bertrand, without any success: "The Search for Clay Bertrand."; <https://www.onthetrailofdelusion.com/post/the-search-for-clay-bertrand>

That search for Bertrand reached right into Garrison's office: see "Was Jim Garrison Searching for Clay Bertrand in 1963," op. cit.

Kennedy then told David Brinkley and Chet Huntley:

On September 12th, JFK held a press conference: <https://www.jfklibrary.org/archives/other-resources/john-f-kennedy-press-conferences/news-conference-61>

On October 2, 1963, the White House issued a statement: <https://2001-2009.state.gov/r/pa/ho/frus/kennedyjfv/12651.htm>

It also said that “the major part of the U.S. military task can be completed by the end of 1965,”: Ibid.

“ ... and that “by the end of this year, the U.S. program for training Vietnamese ...”;

However, during the meeting with Robert McNamara: <https://millercenter.org/the-presidency/educational-resources/the-kennedy-withdrawal-combined>

Did the ARRB Prove a Conspiracy in the JFK Assassination?

James DiEugenio, the screenplay writer of JFK Revisited, has also said this on Twitter:

The ARRB even proved Jim Garrison was right:

This overreach obscured the real mission of the organization. The final report of the ARRB notes:

<https://www.archives.gov/files/research/jfk/review-board/report/preface.pdf>

In 1998, Tom Samoluk, Deputy Director of the ARRB, had to reiterate this in a letter to James DiEugenio:

<https://www.maryferrell.org/showDoc.html?docId=215637#relPageId=1>

But the HSCA had already looked at Secret Service documents during that period:
